Body Worn Cameras

Officer W. Osteen

1:50am - William Osteen 2023-08-11 01:50 18 minutes

BWC footage. Audio comes on at 2:00. Osteen makes small talk with Reardon for a minute, and then receives a call and cuts his audio and covers the camera. Audio resumes at 4:07. Osteen approaches another officer (Murph), and discusses the situation. Murph says Reardon was all over the place, driving in all the lanes, and that he was filming. They said they could smell alcohol in the car. After another officer arrives, Osteen approaches Reardon in his car and Reardon gives his name and date of birth. Reardon says he's here to see some friends and is currently live on YouTube. Reardon offers to take a breathalyzer test, but when the officers say they have to arrest and take him to the station, he asks for a lawyer. The officers handcuff him and put him in the police vehicle. They play the Statutory Warning for Reardon while they search his car. They find pills, but nothing else.

2:09 am - William Osteen 2023-08-11 02:09 1 minute

Again, BWC footage. There is no audio for the majority of this video. The officer walks back toward the police car. He seems to be engaged in conversation with the driver of the vehicle. He turns on the audio for the last two seconds

2:11 am - William Osteen 2023-08-11 02:11 2 minutes

This is more BWC footage from the same officer. Again, audio doesn't turn on for a minute, so the conversation with another officer outside of the police car is cut out, as well as a conversation with Reardon. Audio comes on at 1:42, as Reardon is telling the officer that the smell is probably mold, and that there's no alcohol in the car. The officer says he knows what alcohol smells like. Reardon says that the officer is going to look like an idiot

2:14 am - William Osteen 2023-08-11 02:14 27 minutes

The audio doesn't turn on until a minute or so into the video, so the conversation with Reardon while he's being placed in the back of the police car is cut out. During the car ride to the hospital, the officer asks a few questions, and Reardon only responds with "lawyer." Then Reardon and the officer argue about whether taking Reardon in for a blood draw is retaliation. Reardon complains that the officer didn't include him asking for a breathalyzer on his report. Reardon says every other police department has a portable breathalyzer, and that a jury would be on his side. The officer steps out of the car once they're at the hospital to call the judge.

2:56 am - William Osteen 2023-08-11 02:56 34 minutes

This is the BWC footage from Osteen taking Reardon to the hospital. Reardon refuses to give any information, and says nothing except for "lawyer" and tells the officers to get a breathalyzer instead of doing a blood draw. Osteen says he has a warrant, and therefore Reardon doesn't need a lawyer. Reardon is escorted to the ER and asks for a supervisor, who is summoned. Reardon tells the supervisor the following -

- Reardon has been driving 9 hours from Mississippi, and he just got here
- He hasn't drank in years
- The officer smelled alcohol in the car
- Reardon offered to take a breathalyzer test but the officer said they don't have a portable one, so they needed a blood test
- Reardon says that he has a fear of needles

Osteen describes how he obtained a warrant to draw Reardon's blood. The video then records the blood draw - Reardon resists, the officers restrain him, the blood is drawn. Reardon yells the whole time. Afterwards, Reardon is escorted out of the building. The officer drives to the station to upload the BWC footage.

Officer L. Murph

1:50 am - LarryMurph 202308110150_WFC1041809_135787002

Audio starts 0:04. Deputy Murph walks around and approaches the black Equinox from the passenger side. He obtains Reardon's DL number and name. He talks to another deputy (Osteen) for a minute, telling him what info he obtained from Reardon. Murph then returns to his car and checks the DL number. Murph tells another deputy about Reardon's reckless driving - all the lanes, holding his phone while driving, plates obstructed, etc. Murph mentions that he thought it was the stolen vehicle they'd been looking for. They discuss the smell of alcohol in Reardon's car. Then, a supervisor (Seargent Doraty) arrives and Murph retells the situation. The supervisor advises them to ask for a field sobriety test. Osteen approaches Reardon and asks if he's been drinking, and he says he's been sober for three years. Reardon gets out of the car and says that the field sobriety test is designed to fail, but he'll do a breathalyzer. The officers tell him they have to put him under arrest and take him to the station to do the test. He says no, and they should bring him a portable one. The deputies reply that they don't have one. Reardon officially refuses a field sobriety test. Osteen handcuffs Reardon and escorts him to the car. Murph retrieves a form from the car and fills it out. Then he joins Osteen in searching Reardon's vehicle, finding prescription pills but otherwise nothing of interest.

Murph is talking to someone (possibly on the phone) about how he thought Reardon's car was the stolen car they'd been looking for - black SUV, out of state tags. The audio catches Officer Osteen and Reardon arguing about probable cause. Murph speaks to the tow truck driver, who fills out the wrecker sheet.

H. Hall

2:04 am - HannahHall_202308110204_WFC1135807_27775267

Officer Hall is in the driver's seat of the police vehicle with Reardon in the back. The officers play an official recording detailing the consequences of not submitting to a sobriety test/ blood draw. Then, the BWC audio captures Officer Osteen telling Reardon they're going to do a blood draw, and Reardon continues to ask for a breathalyzer, saying "you're not going to stick an (expletive) needle in my arm." Officer Hall drives the car to the station.

2:30 am - HannahHall_202308110230_WFC1135807_27775269

Audio starts at 2:04 minutes. Officer Osteen and Reardon are arguing about the breathalyzer (also recorded on Osteens BWC). Reardon claims that every other city has a breathalyzer. Officer Hall waits in the car with Reardon while Officer Osteen calls the judge.

2:56 am - HannahHall_202308110256_WFC1135807_27781164

Officer Hall enters the police station, accompanying Reardon and Officer Osteen. Reardon refuses to answer questions, saying "lawyer" and "get a breathalyzer." Same events as recorded on Osteen's BWC (2:56), except Officer Hall participates in holding Reardon down as the blood is drawn. She escorts him out of the building and to the police car. Hall drives the police vehicle to the garage and turns off her BWC.

Dash Cameras

Officer L. Murph

1:47 am- LarryMurph_202308110147_2112_332871558

Audio starts at 2:03, but all conversations occur outside of the car. Footage depicts a black Equinox braking repeatedly, and then pulling over. Shows a deputy (Murph) approaching the vehicle on the passenger's side and speaking with Reardon. Deputy Murph speaks to Officer Osteen and then returns to his vehicle, out of dash cam range. Officer Osteen approaches the Equinox on the driver's side and continues speaking with the driver. Then both deputies walk off camera. The two deputies return to the driver's side of the Equinox, with a supervisor observing further away. Reardon exits his vehicle and talks with all three deputies. Eventually, he puts his hands behind his back and is taken to the police vehicle. One deputy writes down car information, and then joins the other in searching Reardon's vehicle.
